

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

They are intentionally attempting to sway voters towards the political favorites of Sinclair's management in outright defiance of the intent of FCC rules.

Because of the firestorm of protest, I believe it totally unacceptable that the FCC not investigate and intervene BEFORE such deliberate violations take place.

Please respond. Thank you.